Tree Committee

- Committee is revising their Mission Statement.
- An online comment form is coming soon.
- For what to do about possible Code Violations, see the website:
<http://fanforesthills.com/tree/>
- Have been discussing whether the Tree Committee should be elected like the Coordinating Committee.
- Will be nominating Heritage Trees.
- The current permit is really between B and C, not A and B as it says on the application.

Mediation

- November is Neighborhood Mediation Month.
- City facilitates mediation; free service; 90% successful.
- 503-655-8850 Clackamas County Dispute Resolution

Tenth Street Green Street

- Party second week of November Friday or Saturday – will send email
- At Tenth and E Ave. bump-out hoping for artwork from Rossman Park (the little girl) – contact Lisa Shaw-Ryan or Diana Bouwer to help.

Unsung Hero Nomination

- Information available online at City web site.
- Staff not eligible.

FAN a Top Ten Neighborhood

- American Planning Association named First Addition one of the Top Ten Neighborhoods in the nation.
- <http://planning.org/greatplaces/neighborhoods/firstaddition.htm>

New Business

Sale of Korean Church, site to be developed into housing

- Might this be a good opportunity to revisit the question of whether this block should be part of First Addition/Forest Hills neighborhood?

Neighborhood Survey

- Brad Beals would like to find out how residents (not just those who attend neighborhood meetings) feel about infill, FAN Plan implementation, overlays within the R6 zone, design districts, etc...

Voters' Forum

- LONAC is sponsoring a voters' forum October 17, 7:30pm at Lakewood Theater Auditorium. Representatives from both sides of the local ballot measures will be there.
